

JUN 04 - MORE UPS & DOWNS

After breakfast in Burney, CA, a few miles up the road from our home for the past 3 days, we headed for Collier Memorial State Park just north of Klamath Falls, OR. We weren't done with climbing. We went over Dead Horse Summit (4,489'), Black Butte Summit (3,917'), Grass Lake Summit (5,101'), and Mt. Hebron Summit (5,202') before we dropped into Klamath Falls, OR.

Mount Shasta

Klamath Falls really looked quite pretty. We think we might like to come back here another day and spend some more time.

After a gas stop, we headed north on Hwy 97 around Upper Klamath lake. About 30 miles later, we pulled into the state park and picked a site for the next 2 days.

Tomorrow we are going to visit Crater Lake. See you there.
